Passing by

I travel by car
Buildings that are tall,
And some shops that are small,
some places
Some places that light up,
Rivers that pass by
In the mist of the moon
I look forward and I see
A big building that's busy,
And what do I hear,
"We're here, We're here"
I open my eyes and I find,
That I've arrived
A little while later
I've comfort on the plane
I look, I'm in the air,
I see fields that are green
It was a wonderful scene!

BEING A Child OF God

Hannah Elizabeth Cheeran Mathew (IVA)

Being children is what comes naturally to us. But let us not forget to be the children of God. We as young ones, are very close to the heart of God. We need to spend, a few precious moments in prayer. God our Heavenly Father is just waiting to listen to our little voices. I share an incident which happened to me during the 2nd tem exam. On the day of my Malayalam exam (one of my toughest subjects) I went to the school chapel and asked God's blessings to make me remember what I have learned. My prayer was answered and I could write the exam well. So, when we do our duty and pray to God, he will answer our prayers. We need to pray not only for ourselves but also for our family, friends, teachers, the poor, the sick and for the world at large.

CHILD LABOUR

John Paul (VA)

The phrase “today’s children are the citizens of tomorrow” has lost its meaning, given prevalence of child labour across the country. Child labour refers to the employment of children in any work, thus depriving children of their childhood, interfere with their ability to attend regular school, and that is mentally, physically, socially or morally dangerous and harmful. This practice is considered exploitative, by many international organizations, legislations across the world. Prohibit child labour.

GO OUT and play

Stina Joshy (VA)

Catch a little raindrop, hold it in your hand,
Walk on the beach; drag your feet in the sands,
Let the wind blow through your hair,
Jump into puddles here and there.
Skip after a butterfly without care.
Watch a dragonfly cut through the air.
See birds and squirrels playing on the trees,
They might let you join them, if you say, 'PLEASE'.

Let's Draw a Gift

A circle and two "C"s make a bow

Now draw two 'W's.

Then draw four 'L's as shown

Two more 'L's and a line to complete the box

Some more lines for the ribbon and your gift is all wrapped-up nicely

The importance of EDUCATION

Education is powerful because without it, you can't be informed nor can you truly understand the meaning of many topics. It is important to have knowledge, so that you can pass on your knowledge to the next generation.

My teacher is beloved to all of us
She is a woman of action
We are all cared and loved by her
She really understands others.
We have a very cordial relation with our teachers
Everyday she comes on time
She teaches us well
She also tells stories and jokes
But she never compromises over any kind of mistakes or indiscipline
She considers her students as her personal belongings

The ROCK

Rock, the hardest of all
Won't crack even in the tears of all
But becomes sand
As the years pass by.

Rock, the hardest of all
Won't break even in the tears of all
It makes, the rivers sing,
It makes, the caves hard.

Rock, the hardest of all
Won't break even in the tears of all
It sits on the chair of pride
But won't know when it breaks.

SERVICE AND KINDNESS

Service is the outcome of kindness. These virtues complement each other. Service to others, is the rent we pay, for our room here on earth. According to Mahatma Gandhi, 'the best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others.' So no joy can equal the joy of being kind and service-minded. So let us be inspired by the great qualities of Gandhiji and strive to walk in his path.

TIME to RELAX

On Tuesday, 26th November, 2013 Carmel Academy L.P. Section students left for one-day trip to the Dream World, Water Theme Park in Athirapilly. In the morning, after seeking god's blessings, we set out for our trip. The bus ride was filled with excitement. We ate tasty snacks on our way. A little while later, we arrived at our destination. After we got off our bus, the staff of Dream World announced the safety instructions and sent us for an exciting 3D show. Afterwards, we went to the striking car which was followed by the caterpillar ride, monkey's hand, wave pool, rain dance etc. I enjoyed the wave pool the most. We had our lunch at Mangolia Restaurant. The saddest part of the fun day was when we boarded the bus back to Carmel Academy.

"Opportunity is missed by most people because it is dressed in over hauls and look like work" – Thomas Alva Edison

Opportunities should be grabbed by both hands. Once missed it is lost forever. A man should make use of the good times that come his way to work his way to success. If he missed it, then someone else would take it up.

Success waits for the one, who gets hold of the right opportunity and makes use of it properly.

This day, 26-11-13 (Tuesday) was a special day for all of us. Yes this was the day we had planned to go for a picnic. At first we went to a room to keep our bags and belongings after which we went to watch a 3D show. It was at first scary but later funny. Then we went to striking car. I and Paul Philip were partners in the care. We later went to the monkey's hand. It is not a reality but a statue. When I sat on it, it started moving slowly then a little faster and faster, and finally like a tornado. I was about to get thrown out of the seat. Shivers ran down my spine. Then we went to the caterpillar ride. Its speciality was that it would move with a small hump while it started. Then we went to an ordinary train. It was about 12:00 p.m. We went to the Dream World's own restaurant, Restaurant Mangolia. We had rice, pappad, sambar, pickle etc. We relished the good food and the ice-cream. Then was the moment I had been waiting for, yes..... the water games..... At first we went to the Dream shower. The water was splashing everywhere. Then we went to the Wave pool. The water came like the sea waves. It came over my head. Then came the dancing time! The rain dance. Everyone enjoyed. Finally came the time to tell bye. I will never forget this day in my life.

Nostalgia

Prof. Sheela Mathews

When I was born, I knew nothing but to cry
Things would be done, if I knew how well to cry
I thanked the Lord for making me wise to cry
I chuckled to myself when I learned that Crying is the most powerful weapon to get things done.
My heart bubbled with joy to see all soothing me
But I knew that I was sly.
As years rolled by, I realized, how great
It was to be a child,
And a child, I wanted to be.
But that was not to be
Now when I'm old, I let my thoughts wander
Down the memory lane of my child hood days
And cry and cry bitterly
Only to find that none would soothe me anymore!!!

Heaven in hand

Sooraj Sunil (IVA)

Our picnic was on Tuesday (26/11/13). We went in a bus and we were excited about the trip to the Dream World. The bus was full of the excited noise of the children. It was not as long as we expected it to be. When we asked the bus conductor for music he told us that the music system was damaged. So we started to sing some songs which we knew. When we reached the Dream World all of us started shouting and cheering. After taking our number the people there let us in. We thought that we would go to the 3D Show, but we were wrong. We first went to a prayer hall. After 3D show we went for the bumper car. It was my most favourite ride. After a few rides we went to the restaurant for lunch and after lunch we had ice-cream. Then we went to enjoy Water Spray. There we played diving. And after many more rides we went back. On the way we shared snacks and oranges with our friends. Finally we reached school.

A Song for the Stalwart

Greetings to the one, Par Excellence,
He, who comes with a radiant smile
And gladdening the days in the Academy;
Humane and just are synonymous with his name,
Humor, his watchword
His practical wisdom, Unmatched,
Far-sighted and selfless service,
Make him unique, indeed
An icon of myriad talents
Innovation, his specialization
A doyen in the sports arena
He turns his vision into action.
All these attributes rolled into one,
We rightly call him

WE ARE THERE FOR YOU

Sowmya. K (Office Staff)

A young girl with long dark hair, wearing a bright pink raincoat, a matching pink hat with a black band, and colorful patterned rain boots, stands on a sandy beach. She is looking out towards the ocean under a cloudy sky. In the distance, a small island or headland is visible across the water.

I was standing on the seashore
Watching the sun setting down...
My eyes were filling up unknowingly
I looked here & there....
It was crowded everywhere
I wished if I had a friend
With whom I can share my sorrows.
My eyes had brimmed with tears....

Then the waves of the sea touched my feet,
I felt as if it was washing my feet,
Saying that, “don’t cry my dear friend,
We are there for you”,
The blowing wind wiped my tears,
Saying that, “don’t cry my dear friend,
We are there for you”,
The setting sun threw his rays on me,
Saying that, “don’t cry my dear friend,
We are there for you”,

I cried a lot and shared
All my problems with my friends,
I looked here & there
It was getting dark.
All were in a hurry to leave,
Yes, the sun has to go.
I was happy, I got some new friends,
I also planned to leave
Saying bye-bye to my friends,
Bye-bye dear sea...,
Bye-bye dear wind...,
Bye-bye dear sun...,
BYE-BYE....

Role of People in our Life

Mrs. Nijiya George (Teacher)

Life is a journey with most of us not knowing where this journey leads us. We say our journey starts right from the time we take birth or let us say right from the time we are conceived in our mother's womb and it ends when we die. During the course of our voyage we meet so many people, out of which some are related to us, others just come and go. It is fascinating that each person we meet has some impact on our life on which we do not pay much attention. However, in fact our personality largely is moulded by the influence of these people. For example, our parents, relatives, teachers, friends, neighbours, enemies and even strangers are responsible for making us who we are today and who we will be later in our lives.

Each person we meet in our life is there for a specific period of time, plays his/her part and goes away. Some have longer part to play and some shorter. What we have learnt from our life is, "No single person is good or bad, it depends on us how we perceive that person's presence and extract the good from him/her."

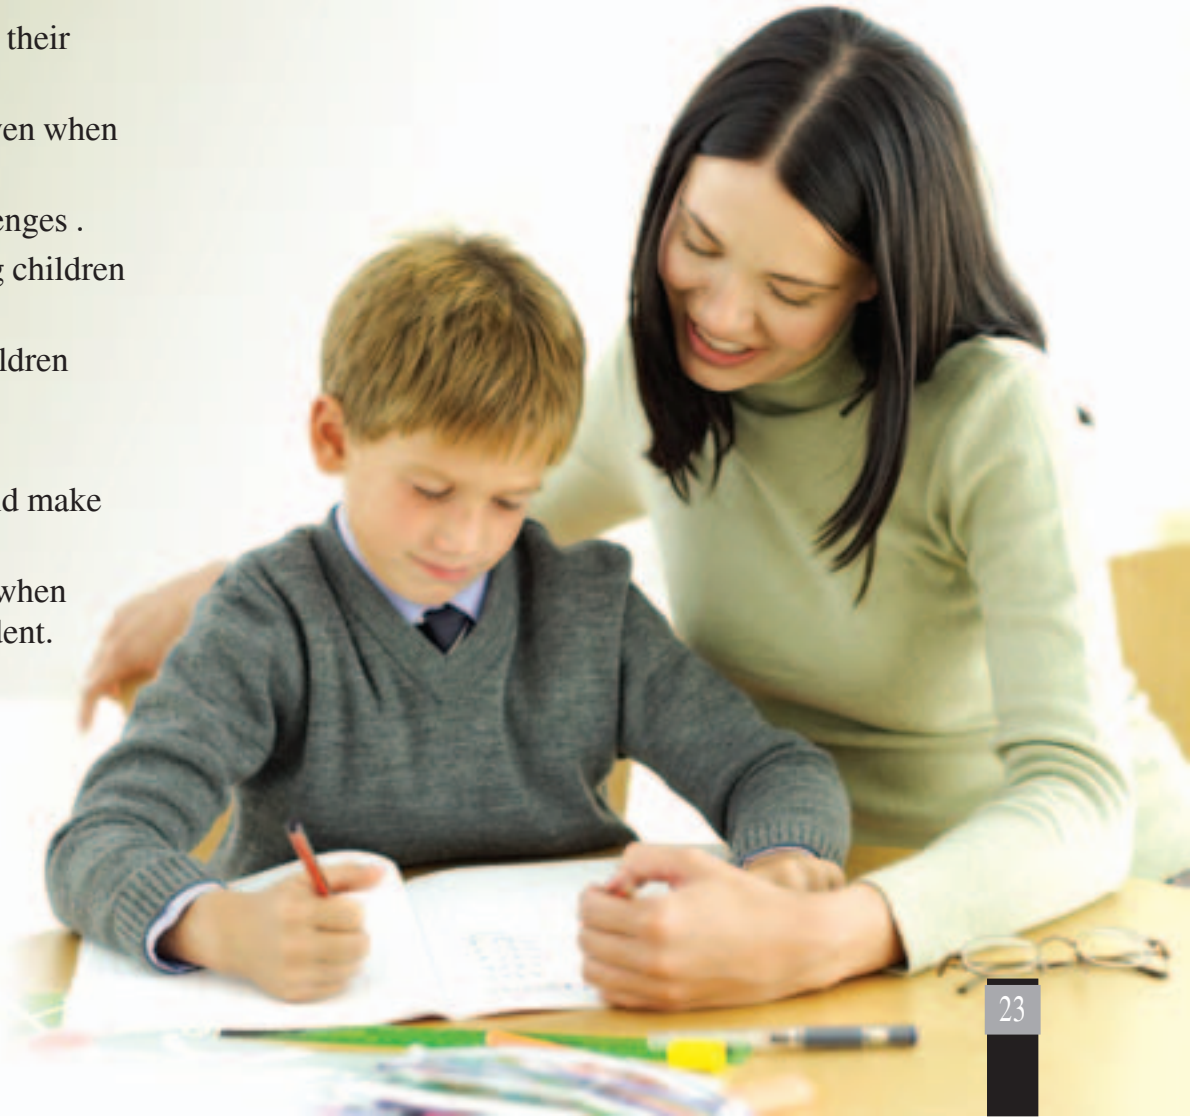

Make the best use of their presence and be grateful to them!

समय का सदुपयोग

समय जीवन का सबसे महत्वपूर्ण अंग है। मानव अपने जीवन को तभी सफल बना सकता है जब वह समय का पालन करें। समय का सदुपयोग का अर्थ है समय को बर्बाद न करना और उसे अच्छे कामों में लगाना। इसका एक-एक क्षण मूल्यवान है। विद्यार्थी के लिए समय का सही उपयोग ही सफलता की कुंजी है। समय के अनुसार और समय का पालन करने वाला विद्यार्थी ही जीवन में अपने हर कार्यों में सफल होता है। अभिभावकों का घर पर और शिक्षकों का विद्यालय में कर्तव्य है कि उनके बच्चे को समय का सदुपयोग का पाठ पढ़ाते रहें। जीवन में समय की गति को पहचानकर एक-एक क्षण का भरपूर उपयोग करना चाहिए। यदि हम प्रकृति की ओर देखे तो धरती सूरज-चांद तारे आदि सभी समय का पालन करते हैं। इसलिए हमें भी अपना काम समय पर करना चाहिए। जो मनुष्य समय का महत्व नहीं समझता वह अपना जीवन कभी सुखी नहीं बना सकता।
